

Coaches vs. Cancer Golf Tournament

Coaches vs. Cancer of Penn State held their 26th Annual Golf Tournament on June 2, 2023. A record number 400 golfers and nearly 100 volunteers came together for this amazing event! We are so thankful to the American Cancer Society and Coaches vs Cancer's devoted staff and volunteer committee members for the great impact they have made in our local cancer community. Since 2006, this partnership has raised over $600,000 to benefit BPF's mission.

Mikey's Old School Ride

Avid riders from near and far gathered on June 3, 2023, as Diane Evans and Jennifer Lanich held their 10th Annual Mikey's Old School Ride. This event, held in memory of Michael, Chris, and Buddha Lanich, raised an incredible $2,920 for cancer patients in Clearfield County! Riders were asked to donate $10 to participate, and baked goods and event t-shirts were available for purchase. Thank you to Diane, Jennifer, and the entire Lanich family for ten years of this wonderful event!

Huntingdon County BPF Event

On June 10, 2023, Rickey Himes and her dedicated group of volunteers welcomed attendees to Mill Creek Lions Club for their annual Bob Perks Fund Event to celebrate the fighters who are currently fighting, the survivors who have fought and won, and to honor those who lost their battle with cancer. This year's event raised $4,014 to help Huntingdon County cancer patients focus on their treatment and recovery, rather than their bills. Entertainment was provided by Eric Armstrong and his group of gospel singers. Rickey and the Huntingdon County Core Bob Perks Group have raised over $120,000 to benefit Bob Perks Fund across many years of support.

Rotary of Altoona Presentation

BPF Executive Director, Cindy Brown, and BPF Development Coordinator, Clay Glenny, had the great pleasure of speaking to members of the Rotary Club of Altoona about Bob Perks Fund on June 20, 2023. Thank you to the Rotary Club of Altoona for allowing us this great opportunity to share BPF's mission and work in Blair County!

Huntingdon County Yard Sale

Clay Glenny and family held their annual yard sale to benefit Bob Perks Fund at St. Catherine's Catholic Church in Mount Union on July 14-15, 2023. Parishioners and community members alike came together this year to donate an enormous amount of items. A record-breaking $6,215 was raised at this year's sale! This generous donation will help individuals battling cancer in Huntingdon County pay their bills, so that they can focus on getting well.

Rotary of Hollidaysburg Presentation

On July 19, 2023, BPF staff members Cindy Brown and Clay Glenny were invited to share information about Bob Perks Fund with members of the Rotary Club of Hollidaysburg. At the conclusion of the meeting, Rotary President, Jack Collins, presented Clay and Cindy with Rotary of Hollidaysburg slinkies.

United Way of Mifflin Juniata Award

This summer, United Way of Mifflin Juniata generously presented BPF with an award of $12,000 for the coming year. We are so thankful for our great relationship with United Way of Mifflin Juniata!

Claysburg Rotary Presentation

Claysburg Rotarians welcomed BPF Executive Director Cindy Brown and BPF Development Coordinator Clay Glenny on August 15, 2023 to speak about the Bob Perks Fund mission. We are grateful to the Claysburg Rotary for this wonderful opportunity to introduce ourselves.

Party at the Park

Cove Cause for Cancer held their Party at the Park event at Morrisons Cove Memorial Park in Martinsburg on August 19, 2023. The day was packed full of fun, including food, live music, face painting, a bounce house, raffles, a corn hole tournament, and a pool party to close out the night!

Save the Date
